WE PRAY TOGETHER (in unison)

Because of you, O God, our lives ought to be a constant rejoicing.
Yet we often live in cramped and defeated postures, forgetting the beauty of the world and the richness of love and the glory of merely being alive.
Forgive us for every day and hour we have spent in such forgetfulness, and make us sensitive once more to the joy of your eternal presence.
Lift the clouds of gloom and sadness from our hearts and help us to thrill at the brightness of this day and our prospects in it.
Free us from our preoccupation with ourselves and let us delight in our relationship to the rest of the world, for you have loved the world and sent your Son into the world to redeem and reshape it in his image – the image of your Son, in whose holy name we pray.
Amen.
