Church For Dummies Part 7 - Reaching a Lost World

While Paul was waiting for them in Athens, he was deeply troubled by all the idols he saw everywhere in the city.¹⁷ He went to the synagogue to reason with the Jews and the God-fearing Gentiles, and he spoke daily in the public square to all who happened to be there.¹⁸ He also had a debate with some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers. When he told them about Jesus and his resurrection, they said, “What’s this babbler trying to say with these strange ideas he’s picked up?” Others said, “He seems to be preaching about some foreign gods.”

¹⁹ Then they took him to the high council of the city. “Come and tell us about this new teaching,” they said.²⁰ “You are saying some rather strange things, and we want to know what it’s all about.”²¹ (It should be explained that all the Athenians as well as the foreigners in Athens seemed to spend all their time discussing the latest ideas.)²² So Paul, standing before the council, addressed them as follows: “Men of Athens, I notice that you are very religious in every way,²³ for as I was walking along I saw your many shrines. And one of your altars had this inscription on it: ‘To an Unknown God.’ This God, whom you worship without knowing, is the one I’m telling you about. Acts 17:16-23 NLT

1. Paul was compassionate lost people.

Sympathy – feeling troubled about someone’s distress.

Compassion – feeling troubled, but then doing something about it.

“O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kill the prophets and stone those sent to you, how often I have longed to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you were not willing. Matthew 23:37 NIV

2. He spoke to the religious

So the word of God spread. The number of disciples in Jerusalem increased rapidly, and a large number of priests became obedient to the faith. Acts 6:7 NIV

3. He went to the public square as well

Areopagus – Public Forum

4. He shared truth, but started “where they were.”

The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the One and Only, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth. John 1:14
