PROGRESSIVE DINNER

Youth would like to recruit a few homes to help out with a Progressive Dinner on Sunday, December 12. If you would be interesting in hosting the youth for part of the meal, please contact Carolee Grehan at wumcprayer@hotmail.com

COLLECTING EMPTY POP CANS/ALUMINUM

Members of the United Methodist. Please give, a helping hand, to the Williamsburg Emergency Mission. By bringing in you old pop cans/aluminum. All proceeds will provide another way to help keep, the mission pantry stocked to help the less fortunate, sustain a Meal! There is a blue recycling bin in the fellowship hall next to the pop machine. Jim Richter will collect the empty pop cans/aluminum every week and take them to the recycling center. Please call Jim Richter for answers to questions @ 513-678-1696.

CHURCH WORK DAY

Youth Council, Family Ministries Team and Trustees had our second activity on Sunday afternoon October 10th from 12:30 to 3:30 called "Serve the Church". After lunch prepared and served by United Methodist Women, we set to work cleaning up and sprucing up thing around the church. Check out the shrubs, parking lot, the entryways, the upholstered chairs, the furnace room and the Sunday School Office to see what we accomplished. Over 30 people helped with the many projects and enjoyed fellowship as we worked. Please thank Don Frodge, the trustees, and the UMW for making this joint project a success.

THANK YOU FOR SUPPORTING THE FESTIVAL OF SHARING

We boxed 75 kits - 30 school kits, 5 Baby Kits and 40 health kits to be sent to the distribution center. Thank You to the Quilting Ministry for furnishing the 30 school bags needed for the school kits and to the United Methodist Women for supplying the 20 health kits. Thank you for your support Roy Abrams, Patti Louiso, and Cindy Gregory. Matthew 25-35-40 explains why we participate in this mission. Thank you for your continued support Roy Abrams, Patti Louiso & Cindy Gregory.
